Dear Harold,

By now you should have received my suggestion that you write a book on the FBI. Enclosed is an outline of the type of book I have in mind. In my opinion the book will sell provided it shows the GOOD and the BAD OF the F.B.I. Start with the Good and gradually show the current ugly side. A Dr. Jekyl and Mr Hyde story.

I also believe that you are the only one who can do it because you have the documention to back up the story.
I also believe that it would be good for your health to stop your present (WASTE prolific correspondence and devote your time on a single project — the story of the FBI — the good and the bad.
Please look over my outline and give me your ideas — that is provided you're interested.
If you are interested I will defray the expense and I've asked Sam to be our consultant. R.S.V.P.
